

Kelly Loeffler personally profits from the climate crisis.

When we use more fossil fuels, Kelly Loeffler gets richer.

- Thanks to Loeffler's insider trading scandal, voters know she invested millions in fossil fuel stocks. After facing criticism for insider trading, she sold her fossil fuel stock and now has a net worth of around \$500 million.
- But, Loeffler's husband owns one of the biggest fossil fuel exchanges in the world, Intercontinental Exchange (ICE) where she was an executive for 16 years (2002-2018). ICE is the trading market for about half of the global trade in crude oil.

One of Loeffler's first actions as Senator was to urge President Trump to expand coal tax credits and end renewable energy tax credits.

- Loeffler's top five donors include business executives from Blackstone Group, Quikrete, and Intercontinental Exchange. Blackstone Group invests billions in fossil fuels including leaky pipelines. Quikrete builds fossil fuel pipeline infrastructure, mining infrastructure, and coal mines. Intercontinental Exchange is the company her husband owns, which serves as one of the biggest fossil fuel exchanges in the world.

Kelly Loeffler proudly states she agrees with Trump on every single issue, boasting a "100% Trump voting record.

- This means that she agrees with Trump's climate stances, which include:
 - Withdrawing from the Paris Climate Agreement
 - Dismantling the Clean Power Plan
 - Enabling dangerous offshore drilling
 - Allowing oil exploration in publicly-owned protected wilderness areas of Alaska
 - Approving oil pipelines that cross rivers we use for drinking water

Loeffler calls action on climate "radical" and attacks programs that would bring new clean energy jobs to Georgia. If Kelly Loeffler has her way, Georgia will be left behind as the rest of the country transitions to clean energy—just like West Virginia was when the rest of the country transitioned away from coal.

- "The Democrats' radical Green New Deal proposal is absolutely ridiculous. This socialist plan would crush the American Dream by killing millions of jobs in our energy industry, bankrupting our economy, and expanding the Washington bureaucracy until it suffocates free markets and individual choice." - Kelly Loeffler, Atlanta Journal Constitution
